

PAYEES

Purpose: This category describes the types of payees and who can be a payee in situations when someone other than the head of the assistance unit is named as payee on the warrant and medical ID card.

This category also defines and describes an authorized representative for the food assistance program.

A. PAYEES ON BENEFIT ISSUANCES

WAC 388-460-0001 Payee for cash, medical and food assistance benefits.

WAC 388-460-0005 Authorized representative for food assistance benefits.

B. AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE

WAC 388-460-0010 Food assistance authorized representative--Treatment centers and group homes

WAC 388-460-0015 Persons who may not be an authorized representative for a food assistance unit.

C. PROTECTIVE PAYEES

WAC 388-460-0020 Who is a protective payee?

WAC 388-460-0025 Who can be a protective payee?

WAC 388-460-0030 When is an emergency or temporary protective payee (TANF/SFA) used?

WAC 388-460-0035 When is a protective payee assigned for mismanagement of funds?

WAC 388-460-0040 When is a protective payee assigned to TANF/SFA pregnant or parenting minors?

WAC 388-460-0045 Are clients in WorkFirst sanction status assigned protective payees?

WAC 388-460-0050 When is a client transferred from a protective payee to guardianship?

WAC 388-460-0055 What are the protective payee's responsibilities?

WAC 388-460-0060 When are protective payee plans done?

- WAC 388-460-0065 When is the protective payee status ended and how is a protective payee changed?
- WAC 388-460-0070 What are your fair hearing rights regarding protective payment?